OVER THE MOON

Inspired by the textures they came across while renovating their Victorian home, interior designers Jordan and Russell, also known as the 2 Lovely Gays, have created the Future Victorian collection with the Secret Linen Store. Of the three ranges, Moon (shown) is based on the texture of stripped plaster but it also bears similarity to craters on the surface of the moon. From £10 for a pillowcase and from £60 for a double duvet cover. secretlinestore.com and 2lovelygays.com.

SOFA SO GOOD

Up until now we've known them for specialising in fitted furniture for 30 years, but now you can choose your new sofa or armchair from the debut range of upholstery by Neville Johnson. There's a choice of 11 sofa and chair designs in 112 fabric options, so you won't need to compromise. We love the Dali (shown) for its Chesterfield style and sweeping arms. It's from £2,750. OUT AT SEA

Adding to her Seascape line-drawn wallpapers, Abigail Edwards has introduced three colourways which reflect nature and its charm at all different times of the day. Dusk is an atmospheric and mysterious blue design, Dawn has a coral line on a calm, cool background and Sunrise (shown) features metallic gold strokes which depict rolling waves. Prices are from £59 per 10m roll. abigailedwards.com.

Jewel TONES

If you want your bedroom walls to perk up your mood, take a look at the new range of 10 rich colours by interior designer Rachel Bates in collaboration with Little Greene. The Jewel collection includes beautiful shades such as Palazzo Plum, Duffy Green and Daisy's Rose. Prices range from £5.25-£64.60 depending on quantity.
