

MAY 2016

mayfair times

THE INDIAN ISSUE

*Radhika Seth and Faiza Seth – the dynamic duo behind Casa Forma
PLUS: Focus on Indian art, Russian Art Week and our home special*

INDIAN AGRA carpet circa 1870, £35,000
C John (Rare Rugs) Ltd,
 43a South Audley Street

YOUR OWN POCKET OF INDIA

Be inspired by the beauty of India with gorgeous new homewares and sumptuous coffee-table books

BY LORNA DAVIES

EDEN EMPRESS cushion by Matthew Williamson, £90
Osborne & Little,
 John Lewis,
 Oxford Street

BRITISH FASHION DESIGNER, Matthew Williamson is known for his love of the Indian aesthetic. Now, he's collaborated with Nottingham-based sofa manufacturer Duresta to launch his first ever bespoke furniture collection: Duresta for Matthew Williamson. This bohemian collection comprises five upholstery ranges and unique occasional pieces.

Tango sofa in Aurora Fuchsia, from £1,768, with Mistral Teal, £63, Aurora Fuchsia, £137, and Estelle Fuchsia scatter cushions, £63.
Harrods, 87-135 Brompton Road

AN EXPLORATION of the timeless, richly coloured beauty of Indian design through 200 classic objects.

Sār: The Essence of Indian Design, by Swapnaa Tamhane and Rashmi Varma, £49.95, Phaidon

INDIA BRINGS together 96 photographs, taken across the Indian subcontinent, by award-winning photographer Steve McCurry throughout his 35-year career.

India by Steve McCurry, with an essay by William Dalrymple, £39.95, Phaidon

RACHEL BATES Little Greene "Palazzo Plum" paint, £44 (2.5 litres).
 The Little Greene London showroom,
 3 New Cavendish Street

