Home for SUMMER

FROM A PRETTY 17TH-CENTURY COTTAGE

FRESH BOTANICALS

Embracing this season's hottest colour, green, and a leafy, natural design, the new Botanist bedlinen from Sainsbury's Home is ideal for creating a fresh-feeling, tranquil summer haven. Particularly effective when paired with weathered wood, the bedding is 100 per cent cotton and features beautiful embroidered detail, from £28 for a double duvet set. Colour confidence

New from Little Greene comes an exciting paint collection created in collaboration with interior designer Rachel Bates. Featuring 10 vibrant, pigment-rich hues, from the emerald shade of Rococo Green (below) to the stunning amethyst of Lace Cap Hydrangea, the Jewel collection embodies Rachel's love for using bold colours in the home, and is one that Little Greene's MD David Mottershead hopes will 'encourage customers to be brave with their choices when decorating'. Priced £37 per 2.5 litres of Absolute matt emulsion at select Little Greene stockists and rachelbatesinteriors.com.

AUTHENTIC WEAVES

Made from old handwoven Turkish kilim carpets, which boast beautiful bold patterns, these one-of-a-kind cushions are guaranteed to make a visual impact in your home, yet won't have a negative effect on the environment. Priced around £56 each at Yonder Living. (yonderliving.com)
