

Heather & bracken

A somewhat unusual and brave colour combination, purple and green are not quite opposites on the colour wheel; they share a blue base tone, but differ just enough to make a pleasing contrast that is distinctive and rather soothing. The naturalness of green, which balances colour schemes in the natural world, brings harmony to the vibrancy of purple-pinks, just as it does on heather clad moors.

1 Arran check duvet set and Murray check duvet set, both £80 for a double; bedstead and all accessories, all House of Fraser
2 Fontibre fabric, £55 a metre, shown with assorted other fabrics, all from Nina Campbell at Osborne & Little 3 Raspberry cushion, £110; raspberry throw, £95; rug, £720, all prices approx, from Sweden but available online to UK customers, Simon Key Bertman, styled by Sara Stenvall 4 Large Flower Serving Bowl, Amethyst with Emerald Inner, £208, Rachel Bates Interiors
5 Floreale wallpaper in damson, £79 for a 10 metre roll, Designers Guild

6 Single orb pendant, purple, £474, Curiosa & Curiosa 7 Green glass decanter, £55, I & JL Brown 8 Walls in Savage Ground, £39.50 for 2.5l Estate Emulsion, Farrow & Ball 9 Olive Colour 10 Citrine 11 Milk Thistle, all £38 for 2.5l Absolute Matt emulsion, Little Greene 12 Barbary toile, £55 a metre, Nina Campbell at Osborne & Little 13 Bobboli table lamp in green, £110; straight empire shade in pink, £45, both Pooky 14 Anastasia paisley in Jade, £165 a metre; Opera linen in Amethyst, £89 a metre; Eskimo velvet in Cub, £152 a metre; Liquid velvet in Reed, £166 a metre, all de Le Cuona 15 Minard large square cushion, £84, Margo Selby